Services within the State of South Carolina.)

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) by way of a request filed by HJN Telecom, Inc. (“HJN” or the “Company”) to amend its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity by a change in its name. By its request, HJN advises the Commission that the Company seeks approval of a change of the Company’s name from HJN Telecom, Inc. to Reliant Communications, Inc. HJN was granted authority to operate as a reseller of intrastate interexchange telecommunications services in the State of South Carolina by Commission Order No. 1998-1019, issued December 22, 1998 in Docket No. 98-307-C. By Commission Order No. 2000-899, issued November 15, 2000 in Docket No. 2000-370-C, HJN’s Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity was amended whereby HJN was also granted authority to provide local exchange services in the State of South Carolina.

Pursuant to the instructions of the Commission's Executive Director, HJN published a Notice of Filing in newspapers of general circulation in the Company's service area. The Company filed affidavits showing that it had complied with the instructions of the Commission's Executive Director. No Protests or Petitions to Intervene were filed in this matter.

HJN, by its request, informs the Commission of the name change of the Company from HJN Telecom, Inc. to Reliant Communications, Inc. With the Company's request, HJN filed its revised tariff which reflects the name change. According to HJN, the tariff revisions strictly reflect the name change and do not otherwise affect the content of the tariff.

At its regularly scheduled meeting on July 8, 2003, the Commission reviewed the case before it, and after due consideration of this matter, the Commission concluded that the request of HJN for approval of a change of the Company's name should be granted. Accordingly, the Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity granted to HJN should be amended to reflect its new name.

The Commission therefore grants the following name change:

FROM: HJN Telecom, Inc.

TO: Reliant Communications, Inc.

The Commission's records will hereby reflect the change of the name of the Company.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

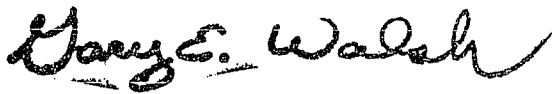

1. HJN Telecom, Inc.'s request for approval of the change of the Company's name from HJN Telecom, Inc. to Reliant Communications, Inc. is approved.
2. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION:

Mignon L. Clyburn, Chairman

ATTEST:

Gary E. Walsh, Executive Director
